

CONTENTS

Introduction by ALESSANDRA DE LUCA and ALESSANDRO SIMONI	XI
---	----

AN OVERVIEW OF THE CONSTITUTIONAL SYSTEM

GIOVANNI TARLI BARBIERI and VERONICA FEDERICO

1. A Short Constitutional History	1
2. Basic Features of the Constitutional Order	3
3. Structure of Government	4
3.1. Separation of Powers	4
3.2. Parliament	5
3.3. Government	7
3.4. President of the Republic	8
3.5. Judiciary	10
3.6. The Mechanism of Constitutional Reform and the Constitutional Court	13
4. Federalism and Decentralisation	15
5. The Bill of Rights	18

JUDICIAL REVIEW OF LEGISLATION

STEFANO BIONDI

1. Introduction	25
2. The Italian System of Judicial Review: Origins	25
3. Composition of the Constitutional Court	27
4. Jurisdiction of the Constitutional Court	27
4.1. General Features	27
4.2. Types of Controversies Decided by the Court	28
4.3. The Incidental Procedure	28
4.4. Admissibility of Referenda	35
4.5. Conflicts between Regions and State and between Regions	35
4.6. Conflicts between “State Powers”	37
4.7. “Impeachment” of the President of the Republic (messa in stato d'accusa del Presidente della Repubblica)	37

THE ITALIAN LEGAL SYSTEM AND INTERNATIONAL LAW

ANNALISA CIAMPI

1. Introduction	41
---------------------------	----

2.	The Prevailing Dualism in the Italian School of International Law	44
3.	The Implementation of Customs under Art. 10, Subsection 1, of the Italian Constitution	46
3.1.	The Scope of Art. 10, Subsection 1.	47
3.2.	Art. 10, Subsection 1, as a “Permanent Transformer” and the Limit in Relation to Non Self-Executing Rules	49
3.3.	The Status of General International Rules in the Italian Legal System.	51
4.	The Implementation of Treaties	53
4.1.	Ordine di esecuzione and Ordinary Norms of Implementation	54
4.2.	The Status of Treaties	57

THE ITALIAN LEGAL SYSTEM AND EU LAW

ADELINA ADINOLFI

1.	Introduction	61
2.	Supremacy of EU Law with Regard to National Legislation.	61
3.	The Remaining Role of the Constitutional Court and the Effect of the Constitutional Reform Approved in 2001	65
4.	The Control on Consistency of EU Law with Fundamental Human Rights Guaranteed by the Italian Constitution	67
5.	Judicial Application of EU Law and Preliminary References to the European Court of Justice.	69
6.	Implementation of EU Law in the Italian Legal System.	71

ITALIAN PRIVATE LAW AND ITS ROMAN LAW ROOTS

PATRIZIA GIUNTI

1.	Why Roman Law?	75
2.	The Legacy of Roman Law in Modern Legal Systems.	77
3.	Policentricity and Flexibility Discovering Roman Law.	81

CODIFICATION OF PRIVATE LAW IN ITALY: A SHORT HISTORICAL SURVEY

IRENE STOLZI

1.	The Historical Role of the Civil Code: Private Law and Beyond.	89
2.	The 1865 Civil Code	90
3.	The 1942 Civil Code	93

PRIVATE LAW: SOURCES AND PRINCIPLES

SARA LANDINI

1.	Private Law and Public Law	97
2.	Italian Private Law: Sources.	98
2.1.	Overall Framework	98
2.2.	Constitution and Private Law	98

2.3.	European Law and Italian Private Law.	101
2.4.	Law and Regulations	103
2.5.	The Civil Code. Decodification and Recodification?	104
2.6.	Customs	110
3.	The Role of Courts and Legal Scholars	111

LABOUR LAW: AN OVERVIEW

SILVANA SCIARRA and WILLIAM CHIAROMONTE

1.	A Brief Historical Excursus	113
2.	Actors and Sources of Labour Law	117
2.1.	Collective Organisations: Trade Unions and Employers' Associations.	117
2.2.	Sources of Labour Law.	118
2.3.	Labour Courts	120
3.	Collective Labour Law.	121
3.1.	Essential Features of the Industrial Relations System.	121
3.2.	Collective Bargaining in the Public Sector.	125
3.3.	Industrial Conflict.	126
4.	Individual Labour Law	127
4.1.	Dependent Employment	127
4.2.	Dependent Employment Contracts: Multiplying the Typologies	128
4.3.	Self-Employment and Quasi-Dependent Employment	133
4.4.	Working Time and Holidays.	134
4.5.	Promoting Equal Opportunities at Work: Protection against Discrimination, Parental Leave and Measures for Disabled People	135
4.6.	Disciplinary Measures.	137
4.7.	Termination of Employment: Resignation and Individual Dismissal.	137
5.	Some Concluding Remarks on Recent Events	139

THE ITALIAN MACHINERY OF JUSTICE

SARA BENVENUTI

1.	Introduction.	143
2.	The Ordinary Courts.	145
2.1.	The Justices of the Peace.	145
2.2.	The Tribunali	146
2.3.	The Intermediate Appellate Courts	148
2.4.	The Supreme Court.	149
3.	The Legal Professions	152
3.1.	Legal Education	152
3.2.	The Attorneys	154
3.3.	The Notaries	156
3.4.	The Judges	157
4.	Concluding Remarks	159

BASIC FEATURES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

NICOLÒ TROCKER and GIACOMO PAILLI

1.	The Legal Framework	163
2.	Italy's Dual System of Judicial Protection. "Rights" and "Legitimate Interests".	164
3.	First Instance Proceedings.	165
3.1.	The Ordinary Procedure	165
3.2.	Shortcuts in the Ordinary Procedure	170
3.3.	The Procedure in Labor Related Matters and Its Extended Application to New Areas	170
3.4.	The New Fast Track Procedure (procedimento sommario di cognizione)	173
4.	Appeals	175
4.1.	Appeal against First Instance Judgments.	175
4.2.	Appeal to the Supreme Court (Corte di Cassazione)	175
5.	Summary Proceedings and Provisional Remedies.	177
5.1.	Summary Proceedings	177
5.2.	Provisional Remedies	178
6.	Alternative Methods of Dispute Resolution	181
7.	Class Actions	182

CRIMINAL LAW: BASIC FEATURES AND PRINCIPLES

MICHELE PAPA

1.	Introduction	185
2.	Recent History and Context. Evolution in the Sources of Criminal Law	187
2.1.	The Criminal Code	187
2.2.	The De-codification Trend.	188
3.	The Constitutional Court and the Judiciary: Their Role in Shaping Italian Criminal Law	189
4.	General Principles	191
5.	Principles Concerning Criminalization: Who Makes Criminal Law and How?	191
5.1.	Legality	192
6.	Principles Concerning Criminalization: What's the Admissible Content of the Criminal Law? Selection of Legal Interests and Necessary Harm	195
7.	Principles Concerning Ascription of Liability.	196
7.1.	Causation	197
7.2.	Culpability	198
8.	Principles Concerning Punishment.	200

CRIMINAL LAW: SELECTED OFFENCES

FRANCESCO MACRÌ

1.	The Italian Law of Homicide in a Comparative Perspective	203
1.1.	English Law: Murder and Manslaughter	203

1.2.	Italian Law: Homicide Crimes General Overview	205
2.	The Italian Law of Sexual Offences	208
2.1.	General Concepts about Sexual Offences	208
2.2.	General Overview of Italian Sexual Criminal Law	210

CRIMINAL PROCEDURE

PAOLO TONINI and FRANCESCO MACRÌ

1.	Introduction	217
2.	The System of Criminal Courts	217
2.1.	General Overview	217
2.2.	Criminal Courts in First Instance	218
2.3.	Criminal Courts in Second Instance	219
2.4.	Criminal Courts in Third Instance (Court of Cassation)	220
3.	Criminal Proceedings	221
3.1.	Parties: Prosecutor, Police, Defendant	221
3.2.	Preliminary Investigations	222
3.3.	Precautionary Measures	223
3.4.	Ordinary Proceedings	224
3.5.	Special Proceedings	225
4.	The Law of Evidence	226
4.1.	General Overview	226
4.2.	The Events Following the Implementation of the 1988 Code of Criminal Procedure	228
4.3.	The Constitutionalization of the “Due Process” Principle (Art. 111 Const.)	229

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

DOMENICO SORACE and SIMONE TORRICELLI

1.	The Meaning of Administrative Law and Its Scope	233
1.1.	Why Administrative Law?	233
1.2.	Scope of Administrative Law	234
2.	Fundamental Principles Governing Public Authorities and Their Activity.	235
2.1.	Practical Importance of Fundamental Principles	235
2.2.	The Complex Meaning of the Principle of Legality: As a Guarantee of Freedoms and Rights	236
2.3.	As Guarantee of the Direction of Administrative Activities to the Public Interest	236
2.4.	Proper Functioning and Impartiality of the Administration	237
2.5.	Accountability and Transparency	239
3.	Administrative Procedure	239
3.1.	Legislative Framework	239
3.2.	Participation	240
3.3.	Fairness and Collaboration	241
3.4.	The Research for Consensus and for a Shared Decision	242
3.5.	Quickness and Simplification	243

4.	The Regime of the Administrative Act	244
4.1.	Revocation and Annulment ex officio	244
4.2.	Execution and Enforcement	245
4.3.	Unlawfulness and Nullity.	245
5.	Judicial Protection	247
5.1.	Distribution of Jurisdiction between Ordinary and Administrative Courts.	247
5.2.	Subjective Rights, Legitimate Interests, Diffuse Interests.	248
5.3.	Remedies	249
5.4.	Enforcement of Decisions	252