

CONTENTS

Introduction to the english edition	vii
Introduction	xv

I.

THE ETERNAL CHALLENGE FACING CORPORATE LAW

1. Corporate Power and Conflicting Interests in the Large Corporation: Preliminary Remarks	1
2. Corporate Governance, Corporations and the Decline of Their Founding Myths	6
3. Corporate Law, Corporate Governance and “Economic Analysis of Law”: towards a Change in Cultural Hegemony	14
4. Large Corporation and Conflicting Interests: a Catalogue.	20
5. Corporate Power and Corporate Purpose: what Goals and whose Interests should Corporate Directors pursue?	27
6. Suggestions from the Comparative Landscape	32
7. Next : the Nexus of Contracts Theory	43

II.

CORPORATE POWER AND CONFLICTING INTERESTS

1. Corporate Power and Conflicting Interests in the Italian Corporation: the Apparent Uncertainty of the Legal Framework	51
2. Next : the New Model of the “Benefit Corporation”	58
3. Board of Directors and Italian Corporation (“non-benefit”): a Trade-Off between “Shareholders Interests” and “Other Interests”?	66
4. “Profit-Making Purpose” and Historical Evolution of the Corporation	73
5. “Profit-making Purpose” and “Shareholder Value”	80
6. The Inevitable Balance between Authority and Accountability: the Evolving Role of Board of Directors’ Decision-making Discretion	85
7. Towards a Challenging Corporate Law Reform: the Italian Corporation (Società per Azioni) as a “Functionally Oriented” Model?	88
Bibliography	95

